INFORMATION REPORT

MICROFILMED

DOC. MICRO. SER.

Country: PORTUGAL Date:
Subject: RADESCU, General Nicolae
Romanian Opposition Info.: Current
Origin: PORTUGAL Emerson Rpt.: 18 September 1947
Evaluation: B-2 Pages: 1.
SOURCE: ced

1. Within the last few weeks there has been complete agreement among the followers of General RADESCU to establish a governing committee, which could at will be changed over into a government in exile. RADESCU is the chairman of the committee, and among other members are TILEA in London, CARANFIL in Paris, CAFENCU and NICULESCU-BUZESTI in Switzerland.

2. RADESCU is as yet undecided as to whether the best interests of Rumania would be served by publicizing this committee or keeping it secret. For the moment, in view of his impending departure for the United States, he has decided to keep it secret until he has a chance to discuss it on a high level with American officials in Washington; he fully expects to be guided by their advice.

3. RADESCU plans to sail, with his suite, on the SS NEA HELLAS, leaving Lisbon on 20 October. Some of the members of this governing committee will be in the United States with him, but others will remain in Europe.

4. NICULESCU-BUZESTI is included in the committee at the moment but there is a certain amount of friction arising between him and the other members, including the General. NICULESCU-BUZESTI is described as a very ambitious young man, who believes that he is the real representative of the majority party (National Peasant) and as such deserves more recognition than he has received. He has only recently become a member of the Peasant Party and is known to have been in contact with Rumanians abroad, whose politics the group as a whole dislikes.
